

English:

Key Texts: The Great Kapok Tree.

- Skills: Composing a sentence orally before writing it, spaces between words, joining words "and, because", punctuating sentences using capital letters and full stops, sequencing sentences to form short narratives.
- Spelling rules: words with a_e, i_e, o_e
- Common Exception Words and 'High Frequency' words.(see Google Drive)
- Use of writers toolkit as shown below

D & T:

- Design and make a carnival mask based on a theme.
- Design and make a musical instrument.

PSHE

Identify a range of feelings we may experience
Recognise what makes me special to others.

Computing:

Data Handling

- Representing data in different ways
- Using technology to represent data
- Collecting and recording data
- To sort data

PE:

- Health and Fitness
- Agility - ball chasing

Maths:

- Number - place value within 100
- Measurement - money
- Measurement - time

RE:

- Being Sorry
- Islam
- Universal Church

Science:

- The Human Body - naming parts of the body.
- The Human Body - understanding how our different senses work.

Rio de Vida

Year 1 Summer Term 2 2023

Key Event:

- Carnival Parade

Geography:

- Looking at geographical similarities and differences between Carshalton and Brazil.

Music:

Rhythm In The Way We Walk
A variety of listening activities focusing on rap and music theory, singing and performing.

History:

- Why is carnival celebrated today in Britain? Where does the tradition come from?
- Find out about Caribbean immigration - How has this influenced society?

Fun Facts – Did you know?

- Rio de Janeiro means 'January River'. In fact, there isn't a river there at all! Portuguese explorers mistook the Gaunabara Bay for the mouth of a river.
- People who are born in Rio are known as 'Cariocas'.
- Thanks to its constant good weather and beautiful beaches, Rio attracts millions of tourists from around the world.
- Rio was the capital of Brazil from 1763 until 1960, when Brasilia became its capital city.
- Rio is home to the oldest electric tramway in the world, the Santa Teresa tram or 'bondinho'.
- Football is the most popular sport in Rio de Janeiro and there are four major football clubs to support: Botafogo, Fluminense, Vasco de Gama and Flamengo. Which would you choose?
- Brazil is home to many species of colourful birds including macaws, toucans cockatoos and yellow canaries. They all star in the film 'Rio'.
- Rio is located on Brazil's Atlantic coast, near the Tropic of Capricorn.
- Rio de Janeiro will become the first South American city to host the Olympic Games in 2016.
- Rio's 'Christ the Redeemer' statue is one of the most recognisable landmarks in the world. It stands high on a mountain overlooking the city.
- In February, Rio's hottest month of the year, the city is at its liveliest with carnival fun a-plenty!
- Rio is often known as 'Cidade Maravilhosa' (the Marvellous City).
- The Rio de Janeiro carnival is a national holiday in Brazil.
- On each day of the Rio Carnival more than two million people party in the streets. That's a BIG party!
- Most samba drums are made of very light material so that the drums can be carried easily around the streets throughout the carnival.
- Samba, the dance of the carnival, is lively and rhythmic and is also one of the most popular in Latin dancing competitions